The beauty of our Eco Beach Houses

Discover Eco Rentals – where luxury embraces sustainability. Experience meticulously crafted, eco-friendly properties that offer both comfort and a gentle ecological footprint. Join us in the journey of responsible travel and enjoy a getaway that aligns with your values.

Reclaimed wood from Brazil

We utilize reclaimed wood from old homes in Brazil. This hardwood, among the best, has been repurposed from its initial use. Often, structures like houses, barns, and farms have to be dismantled, leading to demolition waste. This waste can then be recycled and reused. We employ this reclaimed wood to construct our homes in Bonaire.

The best hardwood and FSC-certified

In Bonaire, we collaborate with a dedicated team of builders and carpenters from Brazil. They customise the recycled, FSC-certified hardwood locally for integration into our homes. This wood is among the finest globally and is highly sought after in modern architecture worldwide.

Hayte's Eco Beach House 2 was perfect for a week of diving in Bonaire. The house is the third house down from The Lake right on the water. You can hear the ocean waves all through the house, and the back deck and pool were perfect for watching the sunset and having morning coffee by the water. Our host greeted us at the house to give us the keys and gave us a tour. Communication was always prompt.

We were so happy with our week at Eco Beach House. The location was great for us with easy drives into town and excellent diving and snorkeling right outside the house. There are a few easy entry spots within a short distance of the house and the babies were even able to nap being held in the waves! Thank you Hayte for the trip of a lifetime!!

We loved it! The house is easy in maintenance for guests: nothing quirky or complicated; no highly valuable gadgets to avoid or be worried about. The view is spectacular! Hayte and his son responded immediately to the requests we had regarding car rental, diving schools, sailing options. The reservation process was also very easy even when we needed to extend our stay and adjust the dates!
